  - WARNING! PHYSICAL RESTRICTIONS
- For safety, you should be in good health and free from high blood pressure, heart, back or neck problems, motion sickness or any other health conditions or disabilities that could be aggravated by this adventure. Expectant mothers should not ride.
- N.B.: The configuration of the seats and safety systems on attractions may not allow access for guests of certain body shapes or sizes. Guests must have sufficient upper body strength to sit in an appropriate position in all attraction vehicles. Please note that most attractions, shows and events are unsuitable for children under 1 year of age. The use of lighting effects, and notably strobe lights and flashing lights, may cause problems for guests who suffer from photosensitivity. Please follow instructions given by Disneyland-Paris staff and comply with the Park's rules and regulations.
- We encourage you to take a look at the rules and regulations on our website prior to your visit: <http://www.disneylandparis.co.uk/legal/theme-parks-rules/>. They are also displayed at the entrance to the Disney Parks. Guests should be properly dressed at all times. For additional information, please refer to the Disney Parks rules and regulations.
- (1) If the attraction is extremely busy, a timed reservation system may be introduced and you may be asked to come back at a specific time later in the day.
(2) The queuing areas are wheelchair-friendly.
